- Lewis Caroll in his inimitable style has held a mirror to the world around us.
- Through the Looking Glass, what Alice found was hypocrisy.

We badly need Good Governance to secure our interests....

The Time has come....

- "The time has come," the Walrus said,
"To talk of many things:
Of shoes--and ships--and sealing-wax--
Of cabbages--and kings--
And why the sea is boiling hot--
And whether pigs have wings."

Mumbai police to file charge sheet against Headley

Mumbai/Washington: David Headley, the terror suspect arrested by the U.S. Federal Bureau of Investigation, will soon be charged separately by the Mumbai police for allegedly conducting reconnaissance of targets hit by Lashkar-e-Taiba terrorists in November last year.

The decision comes after the FBI gave in a Chicago court details of the reconnaissance missions carried out by the American national at the behest of the Lashkar.

Official sources said Indian investigators had enough proof of Headley, who is of Pakistani origin, conducting surveillance of targets in Mumbai for more than two years preceding the November 26, 2008 attack and all evidence of his involvement would be incorporated in the supplementary charge

Bench crushes infant to death

K Ramanujam / DNA

Sunday, November 8, 2009 8:37 IST

Banglore: In a freak mishap, a 22-month-old boy was killed when the support of a cement bench on which he was sitting gave way in a Jalahalli playground on Saturday morning. The bench overturned and the child was trapped under it. He was rushed to a nearby clinic where he was declared brought dead.

Police said the deceased has been identified as Digantha, son of VC Adarsha, a resident of HMT Colony.

Last quarter Results....

- All round Reforms are the need of the hour
- We need Citizen centric "Crime Stoppers" to act as interface between Police and Public to record all information on crime and criminals as reported by the public
- We need a State of art DIAL 100 system that will deliver police help at the door step and ensure predictive intelligence collection and analysis
- We need Anytime Anywhere Policing
- We need law breakers to be brought to book in real time mode!

Strengthening of internal security is urgently needed

Police Evolution in Holland is inspired by the Political set up fighting the King to set up a democracy in place of the ruling monarchy

- Johan Rudolf Thorbecke (January 14, 1798 – June 4, 1872) was one of the most important Dutch politicians.
  - In 1848, he drafted the revision of the Dutch constitution giving less power to the king and more to the parliament.
  - He served (1849–52) as the first constitutional premier of the Netherlands and was twice more premier (1862–66, 1871–72).
  - He gave Catholics equal rights with Protestants, extended the electorate, removed trade restrictions, and initiated projects for the construction of canals for reclaiming land from the sea.
  - His reforms influenced the areas of Elections, Municipalities, Education and Transportation.
  - He is credited with initiating Police Reforms in that country.

Johan Rudolf Thorbecke

The First Prime Minister of the Netherlands

- In Holland Police reforms were initiated in 1977, 1993 and then again in 2006 and now they are looking for further changes to be made to tackle terrorism and other situations in a multi ethnic society
- It is worth extracting a quote from Thorbecke in his 1871 Historical Essays that formed the Introduction to the 1977 Dutch report called "The Changing Police" initiating reforms In Dutch Police.
- "Will we dwell in what our forefathers bestowed upon us; will we not do any thing ourselves, will we resist timely advance; well then, rather than advance, we will face decline. Each era has its own principle of motion; if one lets this lie, the following era will suffer commotion."
- In our life time if we do not do anything about Police Reforms, Criminal Justice system restructuring and good governance we shall be failing in our duty towards our future generations

A quote from Thorbecke…

- If we want to leave a legacy for our children that is prima facie enjoyable like the rhymes penned by Lewis Caroll, we need to do some thing positive before it is too late.

- Good Governance can only come through Awakened citizens pushing for Efficiency, Transparency and Accountability whether it be in Public sector or private sector
  ◦ Transformation through trusted technologies is what we require.
  ◦ Affordable, adapted to local conditions and amenable to fast deployment
  ◦ A fool proof System to be put in place speedily
  ◦ Accountability and total transparency
  ◦ Best Practices integrated

Only way forward –Adherence to Article 51A

- Part IVA Fundamental Duties
- Article 51A Fundamental duties

    It shall be the duty of every citizen of India -

    (a) to abide by the Constitution and respect its ideals and institutions, the National Flag and the National Anthem;

    (b) to cherish and follow the noble ideals which inspired our national struggle for freedom;

    (c) to uphold and protect the sovereignty, unity and integrity of India;

    (d) to defend the country and render national service when called upon to do so;

    (e) to promote harmony and the spirit of common brotherhood amongst all the people of India transcending religious, linguistic and regional or sectional diversities; to renounce practices derogatory to the dignity of women;

    (f) to value and preserve the rich heritage of our composite culture;

    (g) to protect and improve the natural environment including forests, lakes, rivers and wild life, and to have compassion for living creatures;

    (h) to develop the scientific temper, humanism and the spirit of inquiry and reform;

    (i) to safeguard public property and to abjure violence;

    (j) to strive towards excellence in all spheres of individual and collective activity so that the nation constantly rises to higher levels of endeavour and achievement.

Article 51 A introduced on December 18, 1976 by virtue of the Constitutional (Forty Second) Amendment Act 1976. The new Part IVA is titled FUNDAMENTAL DUTIES :

- Apps.gov launched on September 16,2009 by the US Government

- Five ways that Apps.gov can become a trendsetter for Governance in India
  - Vendor neutral IT service catalog
  - Core categories of service from an end user's perspective and citizen centric
  - Automation and/or removal of bureaucratic red tape
  - "Adopt at your own pace" syndrome
  - Cloud not defined by who runs it, but by the quality of service provided

Cloud computing is here to assist Governance

- Congrats to our city Government for adopting IT for Good Governance
- We soon expect the State and the Country to follow the same
- In fact Indian Constitution has enshrined these concepts beautifully in Article 51A aptly titled-Fundamental Duties. The time has come to remind every one about their Fundamental Duties as enshrined in Article 51A of the Indian Constitution. Come let us do it together.
- Art. 51A (j) : to strive towards excellence in all spheres of individual and collective activity so that the nation constantly rises to higher levels of endeavour and achievement.

Central funding for Police capacity building...

Year	Allocation
1969-70	Rs. 50 Lakhs
1978-79	Rs. 7 Crores
1996-97	Rs. 50 Crores
1999-00	Rs.100 Crores
2000-01	Allocation for next five years increased to Rs 1000 Crores p.a.
2003-04	Rs.705.27 Crores
2004-05	Rs. 960.0 Crores
2005-06	Rs.1025.0 Crores
2006-07	Rs.1065.0 Crores
2007-08	Rs. 1248.7 Crores

A survey of Bureau of Police Research & Development had indicated in 2000 that a sum of Rs. 25000 Crores would be required to meet the current deficiencies in the State Police Forces in the country in the areas of mobility, police building, police housing, weaponry, forensic setup, training etc.

Police Modernisation--- a Reality check

- So far as the finances released and utilised are concerned:-
- Take Maharashtra, a state that saw serial train blasts in 2006 that claimed 187 lives and a terror attack last November that claimed another 200.
- Maharashtra has witnessed its police modernisation budget plummet from a high of Rs 166.2 crore in 2000-2001 to a paltry Rs 78.87 crore.
- While central funds have seen minor hikes in the last 10 years, peaking at Rs 107 crore in 2000-01, it has once again come down to just about Rs 78 crore.
- And there are problems associated with their being spent properly

In his note (No 221-RS/126/2009 dated February 13, 2009), the Comptroller and Auditor General of India Sh. Vinod Rai states that :

"In the wake of terror strikes on civil establishments in four major cities, the vulnerability of our police forces in meeting the challenges posed by extremist outfits has become the subject matter of public debate.

- Most police stations, including extremist attack-prone ones, continue to depend on outdated and obsolete weapons.
- Also, police personnel are not adequately trained.
- In most states, the police communication network is non-functional.
- Force mobility has not been strengthened despite the scheme being operational for almost four decades.
- In some states, there is a real shortage of police personnel in all categories.
- There is an inordinate delay in construction of police stations.
- Also the lack of adequate housing for police personnel was adversely affecting their morale and performance.
